Career guidance programme-

Career advancement in UK

A career guidance program was held by Amala College of Nursing on November 27, 2023, at 8:00 a.m. The main objective of the training was to provide an understanding of career progression prospects in the United Kingdom, with a particular emphasis on the healthcare industry.

Miss Chithira Jojo, a distinguished

Registered Nurse at Active Care Group,

UK, and she was also alumnus of the college. was the resource person for the session. In this session students got an idea about the current state of the UK healthcare industry, the resource person's explanation of career pathways and skill development was very helpful to the attendees, who also took out valuable advice on how to overcome obstacles and take advantage of opportunities for career advancement. The meeting was quite successful and During the lively questions and answers portion of the program, attendees actively engaged with resource person to ask questions and get clarification on career-related. The vote of thanks was delivered by Miss. Neethu Benny, 4th-semester B.Sc. Nursing student.
