Career guidance programme

Job Horizons in UK

In the UK, programs for career guidance are essential for helping people make well-informed decisions about their careers. A career guidance program called "Job Horizons" was held by Amala College of Nursing on November 17, 2023, at 8:00 a.m. The program's resource person was Ms. Della VV, a staff nurse band 5, 2021 alumni graduate, who worked in the hyper acute stroke care unit at Charing Cross Hospital, part of the Imperial College NHS Healthcare Trust in London. The resource person was introduced by Mrs. Neethu Titus, Lecturer at Amala College of Nursing, the class began with a silent prayer. The objectives of the program were to enable people to successfully navigate their career paths, make wise decisions to upgrade careers, and provide them with the information and abilities necessary for success in their areas of expertise. The resource person provided a clear explanation of the information regarding opportunities for education and training, a range of industries and career paths, job roles and responsibilities, prospects for advancement, strategies for competitive exams, visa processing, and salary benefits. The resource person clarified all the doubts of the students. The vote of thanks was delivered by Ms. Esther Biju, 4th-semester B.Sc Nursing student.
